

PRESS RELEASE

HEALTH ITALIA OPENS ITS SIXTH HEALTH POINT

Formello (RM), Italy, 23rd of April, 2018

Thursday, the 26th of April, Health Italia S.p.A. will open a Health Point Store in Rome through its 100% affiliated company Health Point Srl, a few steps away from the historic city centre, increasing the total number of facilities in Italy to six, with a total of ten expected by the end of 2018.

Health Italia SpA, an innovative SME company quoted on the AIM Italian market and one of the great participants in the Italian Integrated Health market announces that the sixth “Health Point” facility will begin operations in Rome’s via Vitelleschi on the 26th of April. The facility will focus on supplying remote health services through a specific and innovative technologically advanced project aimed at the creation of an innovative telemedicine model.

This operation will contribute to achieving the growth of income aims through Health Point Srl which, as stated in the guidelines of the 2018-2020 Industrial Plan, requires the opening of 10 facilities in the first year of the Company alone and 20 by the end of the same three year period.

The Health Italia Group successfully operates in the field of Integrated Health with a share capital of over 14 million Euros and a network of professionals committed to ensuring that the more than 350,000 clients have the best access to health services which completes and adds to those offered by the National Health Service.

Health Point Srl’s Administrator Silvia Fiorini commented enthusiastically on the opening of the sixth facility: “We are very happy to be already present with six facilities after only a few months from the start of the project. Health Point’s role is decisive for achieving the expected results for the whole Group and we are determined to reach the set market objectives in a short time”.
