

HEALTH ITALIA TO OPEN ITS SEVENTH HEALTH POINT

Monday 4th of May, 2018 Health Italia S.p.A. through its 100% owned affiliate Health Point Srl, will open a new Health Point in Rome, in the Roma Est shopping centre, increasing the number to a total of seven facilities spread over the territory. The number expected by the end of 2018 is ten.

Formello, 4th of May, 2018 – Health Italia SpA, the PMI innovative company quoted on the Italian AIM market and one of the biggest independent operators in the Italian Integrated Health market advises that on 7th of May, 2018 it will open the seventh “Health Point” facility at the Roma Est shopping centre in Rome. This facility will focus on the supply of innovative telemedical services thanks to the use of the latest generation devices.

The operation constitutes another piece of Group Italia’s strategy aimed at achieving its objective of increasing Health Italia’s income which, as stated in the guidelines of the 2018-2020 Industrial Plan, involves the opening of 10 structures by the end of the Company’s first year of activity and of 20 by the end of the three year period.

The Health Italia Group successfully operates in the Integrated Health field with a net shareholders’ equity of 25.39 million Euros and net shareholders’ equity including non-controlling interests of 26.44 million Euros and a network of professionals committed to ensuring the best access to health services aimed at completing and integrating that offered by the National Health Service to its more than 350,000 clients.

Health Point Srl’s CEO, Silvia Fiorini expressed great satisfaction at the new opening which comes only a few days after the sixth Health Point began operating in the heart of the City centre: “We are very happy with how the project is proceeding. The opening of the seventh Health Point is another important step towards achieving the objectives set by the whole Health Italia Group”.
